MISCELLANEOUS

The seventy-third session of the Michigan Annual Conference was held at Spring Arbor as usual. The presence of our new bishop, Rev. L. R. Marston, was very much appreciated. His talks and sermons were a great blessing to all, especially his survey regarding the questionnaires as to "some elements of ministerial success."

The evangelistic services resulted in a goodly number seeking God.

Liberal offerings and subscriptions were taken for the various departments of the work of the church. We were made greatly to rejoice and rise to sing the doxology as we heard that the school was free of debt, and that over $4,000 had been raised toward a new building, which was supplemented by an offering taken during the conference of over $1,500.

We were greatly favored by having Persis Phelps from India and Grace Somerville from China with us for the missionary meeting.

The conference was made very sad as the names of P. E. Vincent, R. L. Scamehorn and E. N. Foulk were called, they having left us for their heavenly home during the past year. Word also came that S. A. McGee, for many years a pastor and elder among us, had gone home, as well as Sidney Cook of Detroit, delegate for many years to our conference and the General Conference.

IN MEMORIAM

Rev. R. L. Scamehorn was born April 1, 1861, and died in Spring Arbor, Michigan, November 29, 1936. He was converted in 1884 in Jackson, Michigan, and the following June experienced the blessing of perfect love. In July, 1885, he entered the Pentecost Band work under the leadership of Vivian A. Dake. In 1887 he was recommended to the Michigan Conference to be received on trial. October 25 of this year he married Elizabeth Arnt. To them were born six sons and two daughters. Two of the sons and one daughter have gone on to greet him at heaven's gate. He was a faithful husband and father, a typical traveling preacher until he superannuated in 1935. He began his work as associate pastor with G. W. C. Smith in 1887 on what was known as the Hartford, Watervliet, Coloma, Keelersville, Byers and Bainbridge circuit. He served twenty circuits, and one year as conference evangelist. His funeral was largely attended at Spring Arbor, where he was buried. W. C. Muffitt had charge of the service, assisted by several other ministers.

Rev. Parmenas Vincent was born in Hillsdale County, Michigan, October 3, 1851, and died at his home in Spring Arbor, Michigan, January 16, 1937. He married Polly M. Gibbs in 1873. To them were born six sons, three of whom survive him. Bishop Burton J., one of his sons, died in 1931. Converted under the labors of H. Sawyer when he was twelve years old, he was baptized and taken into the Free Methodist Church by E. P. Hart. He joined the Michigan Conference in 1875, and was appointed assistant pastor, with Rev. J. Cripps, to the Raisinville circuit. From then on he traveled circuits, except for eleven years when he was district elder, serving in all thirty-three years for his Lord. He is held in precious memory by the few living who remain on the circuits he traveled. It can be said of him as of one of old, "My servant is dead." He was buried at Spring Arbor, where he had lived for many years. W. C. Muffitt conducted the service, assisted by others.

Rev. E. N. Foulk was born October 11, 1855, at Holland, Ohio, and died in Detroit, Michigan, May 29, 1937. He was converted at the age of sixteen. A short time afterward he united with the Free Methodist Church. He attended school at Spring Arbor, Michigan. Rev. Vivian A. Dake met him and recognized his call to the ministry. He united with the Pentecost Bands, and began his ministry sixty-three years ago. In 1888 he married Miss Ella Fay. She passed away fifteen months later. In 1894 he married Hattie Hansberger. To this union were born two daughters and one son who, with the wife, survive the deceased. He traveled many circuits in the Ohio and Michigan Conferences. After leaving the pastorate he spent eight years in evangelistic work. Many were saved and blessed of God through his ministry. He passed away very triumphantly. Interment was at Holland, Ohio. C. E. Ferguson had charge of the services, assisted by E. A. Cutler and others.

Selah A. McGee was born July 8, 1847, and died at his home in Spring Arbor, Michigan, July 18, 1937, in his ninety-first year. He served four years in the Civil War, and soon after his return was converted and united with the Free Methodist Church. He traveled circuits and districts for several years in the Michigan Conference. He was one of the most faithful ministers of the gospel, and a devoted Christian for many years. He was buried at Spring Arbor. The services were in charge of W. C. Muffitt, assisted by E. L. Hibbard and J. B. Cunningham.

MISCELLANEOUS

The fifty-fourth session of the East Michigan Annual Conference was held in the Hugh McCurdy Park, Corunna, Michigan, August 10-15, 1937. Nearly all of the preachers traveling circuits the past year were present, and a host from Israel. The conference session is growing in popularity with the people, until weeks before conference convenes you can hear them planning for the occasion. The weather was nearly ideal for camping. More than 360 tents and trailers were counted upon the grounds. The presence of many visiting brethren and missionaries was noted from time to time, each of whom added much to the religious services. These were characterized by the spirit and power of the Holy Spirit. Bishop Marston made his first appearance among us, presiding over the sittings of the conference with ease and wisdom. His sermons were greatly appreciated and won him many friends in the East Michigan Conference. All appeals for funds for the various interests of the church were met with a spirit of liberality until upwards of $3,500.00 was raised in cash and subscriptions. There was no deficit noted in the assessed claims, and a gain of 62 was reported for the year.

It was decided to raise a sum equal to thirty cents per member for conference missions, from which the following appropriations were made: Leslie, $20; Clawson, $10; Marine City, $200; Harbor Beach, $20; Highwood, $10; Fraser, $10; Standish, $10; Maple Ridge, $10; Rose City, $10; Coleman, $10; Afton, $25; Hockaday, $10; Atlanta, $15; Onaway, $15; Grayling, $125; Gaylord, $10.

The following appropriations were requested from the General Missions' Fund: Racy, $20; Ithaca, $20; Montrose, $15; Auburn Heights, $15; Durand, $10; Marine City, $30; Mayville, $10; Harbor Beach, $10; Fraser, $10; Rose City, $10; Maple Ridge, $10; Coleman, $15; Hockaday, $10; Highwood, $10; Afton, $25; Grayling, $60; Onaway, $25.

The treasurer of the W. M. S. reported money raised as follows: St. Johns District, $1,569.99; Flint District, $2,201.46; Port Huron District, $836.72; Bay City District, $480.09; Alpena District, $135.05. Total, $5,374.87; Penny-a-Day, $1,108.17; gain, $622.77.

The treasurer of the Y. P. M. S. reported the following money raised by districts for all purposes: St. Johns District, $586.33; Flint District, $1,183.06; Port Huron District, $604.84; Bay City District, $526.37; Alpena District, $261.76; gain over last year, $532.38.

The plan for raising ten cents per member per month for Spring Arbor Seminary and Junior College was voted again this year.

The pastors were instructed to take an offering equal to at least ten cents per member, to be divided equally between Rev. F. J. King, and the widow of Robert Parker.

The district elders were instructed to take an offering upon their respective districts to assist in the entertainment of the next session of the annual conference, said offering to be equal to ten cents per member, and shall be taken before May 1, 1938.

The budget system, which has functioned so perfectly for a number of years, was again adopted as the method of raising the district elders' salaries. It was ordered that $1.70 per member throughout the conference be raised for this purpose, also that in addition to this $200.00 be raised on each of the three southern districts and $75.00 on each of the two northern districts at their general gatherings.

In view of the sharp and continued advance in the price of living commodities, and likewise the healthy advance in wages and prices of farm produce, a resolution was adopted, recommending that all circuits make a corresponding raise in their pastors' salaries for the coming year.

On motion, the first Sunday in November was designated as Conference Claim Sunday, when as many conference claims as possible are to be paid.

IN MEMORIAM

Rev. Frank E. Glass was born at Tuna Creek, Pennsylvania, June 23, 1853, and died at Tuna Creek, March 26, 1937. He was united in marriage in 1886 to Nettie M. Brent. To this union was born one daughter who, with two brothers, survives, his wife having died in 1927. He was wonderfully converted in 1886 and soon after entered the ministry in the Pittsburgh Conference. He served several circuits, his last one being Pittsburgh, Mt. Washington, 1905-06, being compelled to retire from the active ministry because of failing health. He returned to his home at Tuna Creek where, since the death of his wife, he has resided with his daughter. Brother Glass was well known and highly respected in the community where he lived. During his last illness he was much blessed. At his request the funeral service was in charge of Revs. L. A. and S. Sager. The service was largely attended, many of his fellow ministers assisting. The interment was at Randolph, New York.

Rev. Jacob B. Carpenter was born January 26, 1857, in Marion County, West Virginia, and died at Fairmont, West Virginia, April 26, 1937. He is survived by his wife, three children, one stepdaughter, two sisters and two brothers. Brother Carpenter was converted in early life and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which he lived several years, doing some preaching. About sixteen years ago he united with the Free Methodist Church and entered the ministry, serving several circuits, the last one being Huntington, First Church. He was a Christian gentleman, an effective minister and a tireless pastor, visiting especially the sick and afflicted. He made many friends for the church and won many to Christ. He died triumphant in the faith. The funeral service, in charge of C. L. Page, assisted by several ministers, was largely attended. Interment was made in Bonner Cemetery.

In the homegoing of Jonathan F. Beeson we have lost one of the finest Christian characters and one of the most conscientious exponents of the doctrine and experience of holiness of the conference. While ill health has for several years prevented him from being in the active work, yet his life and labors have counted for much on the circuits, where he has so nobly stood by his wife in her ministry. He will be missed by all.

Cora Spiker was an outstanding example of holy living and blessed, experiential, joyous preacher of the gospel of Christ. For years she stood by her husband in pastoral and district work and made a great contribution to his success in these fields of labor in the conference. Sister Spiker carried the burden for souls, and yet through the anointing of the Spirit on her life made all to feel it a glorious privilege to be a real pilgrim. We all have been better because she lived and died in the faith.

Cora Fansler, another of God's handmaidens, whose death will leave a vacancy in the ranks of sacrificing, conscientious ministry which will be hard to fill, spent most of her active service in the strenuous work of pioneering in West Virginia. She was a substantial aid to her husband in his pastoral work in some of the hardest fields for years, and uncomplainingly shared the burdens and blessings of sowing of gospel seed in the hard places.

COLLECTIONS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR

The collections for the ensuing year will be the same as last year, subject to change by the Executive Commission. For the conference it was ordered we raise six cents per member for the secretary and treasurer, and two cents per member for the executive secretary of the Claimants' and Claims' Board; two cents per member for the treasurer of the district elders' salary budget, four cents per member for improvements on the camp grounds, and fifty cents per member for district elder's salary each quarter. The funds for the district elder's salary budget should be sent to Harold Fleck, treasurer of that fund, Charlotte, Michigan. All other funds should be sent to R. G. Calkins, conference treasurer, 318 N. Robert Street, Ludington, Michigan.

MISCELLANEOUS

The North Michigan Conference held its sixty-second annual session at Manton on the conference camp grounds, August 3-8. About 250 tents were erected on the grounds. Those camped on the grounds and those who drove in with automobiles made the attendance larger than in former years.

The evangelistic meetings, which commenced July 27, under the direction of Evangelist Elmer McKay, were the means of helping a large number of seekers for soul rest.

The sittings of conference were characterized by a splendid Christian spirit, and although there were some very persistent debates, in which wide differences of opinion were contended for, yet "brotherly love continued."

Bishop L. R. Marston presided over the conference like a master of assemblies. To say we love him and his family in this conference is saying the least, and seems to fail fully to express our minds. His sermon Sunday morning was masterly and powerful. God did honor His servant by graciously pouring out the Holy Ghost upon him.

There were several visiting brethren from other conferences, missionaries on furlough, and representatives of departments of the church in attendance, all contributing to the interest and success of the meeting.

The appointments were received with quite general satisfaction. Once more we turn our faces and direct our best energies to the tasks of another year.

REPORT OF THE OZARK EVANGELISTIC PROJECT BOARD

The Ozark Evangelistic Project is an aggressive evangelistic program, planned, proposed and launched by Evangelist B. N. Wire in October, 1935, to save the Arkansas and Southern Missouri Conference from extinction and really make Christ known to the great neglected Ozark mission field.

Evangelist Wire came to the Ozarks at the call of God. Upon arrival he found four preachers and fifty-two full members in five feeble societies comprising the remains of a dying cause.

Lack of finances among the Ozark people had been the greatest factor in hindering the prosperity of the work through the years. Capable, trained leadership, of course, would have come to this field had finances been available and had the general church thrown out the challenge.

The condition of the Ozark field is a reflection on our past vision, and a challenge to the future program of our church. There are more than 1,000,000 mountaineers, and between three and four million souls, within the boundaries of this conference. There are scores of communities without a church, Sunday school, or minister. Many grow to manhood and never have the opportunity to attend Sunday school or hear the full gospel.

The O. E. P. plan was: 1. To inform the church of the needs and prospects of this great field and solicit the necessary finances to put and keep workers on the field. 2. To challenge consecrated, Spirit-filled workers to join this movement in the Ozarks. 3. To see a revival in each remaining society. 4. To launch intensive campaigns in cities or places where there were prospects of raising up self-supporting societies. 5. To repair and improve existing church properties. 6. To send workers into the neglected mountain regions among the poor, and establish as many as possible as missionary pastors. 7. To raise funds to purchase tents and other equipment necessary for such an evangelistic program. 8. To encourage Christian people to move into this beautiful Ozark country and help form a basis for the building of a strong conference.

The General Evangelistic Commission puts its approval upon the O. E. P. and gives us the authority to solicit finances throughout the church to carry out our plan. It also audits our books annually.

During the first twenty-two months of this project the following gains have been made: 1. The membership of the conference has increased one hundred and fifty per cent. 2. Thirty-five new workers have been enrolled, including preachers, wives and office help. 3. A good spiritual revival has been experienced on every circuit. 4. Repairs and improvements have been made on most existing churches and parsonages. 5. Five new societies and six new Sunday schools have been organized. 6. The appointments of the conference have been increased from four to nine that are now actually being filled. 7. Two new army duck tents have been purchased; one 40x60, and another 28x42. 8. The name of the conference has been changed to "The Ozark Conference." 9. The annual conference camp meeting, which has seemingly been impossible for years, has been revived, with registered attendance far exceeding the total membership of the conference. The "Ozark Camp Meeting Association" membership fees have made this great gathering possible. 10. The quarterly conference gatherings, turned into Workers' Conferences, have enjoyed a larger attendance than former annual conference gatherings of recent years. 11. The Ozark Echo, the official monthly bulletin of the project, has been published since June, 1936. This eight-page paper is sent out regularly to all who give one dollar or more, or send a missionary box to the support of the project. 12. Office equipment has been purchased, including a Niagara mimeograph machine, mimeoscope and accessories; one new 14-inch carriage desk Woodstock typewriter. 13. All but two circuits are receiving financial assistance each month from project funds, either for the pastor, or rent for living or worship quarters. 14. An electric refrigerator has been donated to assist Brother and Sister Wire in the entertainment of the many workers and visitors who are always coming and going or staying at project headquarters. 15. Last, but not least, much prejudice against our church has been broken down.

Surely the Lord of hosts has been in this movement, when all these things have been accomplished with only a little more than four thousand dollars spent through O. E. P. channels.

"Truly Dollars Go Farther in the Ozarks!"

The harvest is great; the field is ripe; the time is short; the laborers are few. This movement should expand increasingly until Jesus comes. Some work will become self-supporting; the rest will provide as great an opportunity as can be found for investments in missionary evangelism.

DISTRICT ELDERS' SALARIES' FUND

Herbert D. Taylor, secretary-treasurer, New Providence, New Jersey.

PENNY-A-DAY DIRECTOR

Alma Frederick.

ORDER OF COLLECTIONS FOR NEXT YEAR

First quarter, $1.00, due on or before December 31; second quarter, $1.00, due on or before March 31; third quarter, balance due on or before June 30. The total for the regularly "apportioned" conference claims for the current year is $2.80, as indicated in itemized statement mailed to each pastor. Please preserve the card listing these items and figures, for it will help you in filling out properly your "Annual Report" sheet. The newly-elected treasurer is John D. Howard, Dallas, Pennsylvania. This change was made necessary by the voluntary resignation, since conference, of A. W. Lucas who, for several years, had served most efficiently.

OFFICERS OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

For names and addresses, see closing pages of Proceedings on the Commission on Missions, in Combined Minutes.

OFFICERS OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

See Y. P. M. S. Directory in Minutes.

BY WAY OF COMPARISON

Once more our conference reports a loss in membership as follows: 22 over 16 years of age and 13 under 16 years of age, while we gained 3 probationers—a net loss of 32, or a little less than 2 per cent; last year our loss was about 2½ per cent. Fifteen circuits reported a total gain of 61, and fifteen circuits reported a total loss of 93, while five reported no change. Four circuits reported a net loss of 50. Dayton gave the greatest increase, while Byesville circuit tied with Lima circuit for the second highest. The Cleveland District shows a loss of 24 this year and a loss of 23 last year; Canton and Toledo Districts a loss of 18, and last year a gain of 4; Zanesville a gain of 10, and last year a gain of 25. The total membership of the conference, including preachers, is 1,452. The number required for six delegates at General Conference is 1400. The Zanesville and Toledo Districts each show a gain of one Sunday school. The gain this year in the enrollment of the Sunday schools is 256, or about 5½ per cent, and the gain in average attendance is 226, or about 10 per cent. It is indicated that less than 52 per cent of the enrollment regularly attend Sunday school; however, it should be remembered that the enrollment includes the home department and the cradle roll. $9.56 less than last year was raised for Sunday school expenses.

The W. M. S. shows an increase of 50 members, and the Y. P. M. S. an increase of 33 members. The amount of money for missions raised by all agencies is $4853.66, which is $324.23 less than last year. The W. M. S. shows a small gain. The Y. P. M. S. shows a loss of about 10 per cent and the pastors in their quota and "Men and Missions," etc., a loss of 61 per cent, while the Sunday schools, a loss of 26 per cent. The average member, including probationers and preachers, gave $2.91 for missions this year, and last year $3.11, 20 cents more. The average member on the Cleveland District gave for missions, $3.57; on the Canton and Toledo Districts, $2.76; and on the Zanesville District, $2.87. The W. M. S. of the Cleveland District raised more than the W. M. S. on either other district, yet Cleveland District is the smallest.

The average preacher received for support, $839.06, plus parsonage rent, an increase of $49.00, or about 6 per cent. The preachers on the Cleveland District received on an average, $834.67; on the Toledo and Canton Districts, $841.55; and on the Zanesville District, $840.77. The average salary given to the district elders is $1053.76, an increase of $7.91. The district elder on the Cleveland District received $1005.88; on the Canton and Toledo Districts, $1053.13; and on the Zanesville District, $1102.28.

CONCLUSION—Losses: In membership, 32; in missionary money, $324.23; in amount raised for Sunday school expenses, $9.56; in amount raised for missions per member, 20 cents.

Gains: Two Sunday schools; in Sunday school enrollment, 256; in Sunday school average attendance, 226; in W. M. S. membership, 50; in Y. P. M. S. membership, 33; in average salary of preachers, $49.00; in average salary of district elders, $7.91.

Cleveland District gave less salary to its average preacher and less salary to its elder and raised more per member for missions, and the W. M. S., though smaller, raised more than either of the other districts. This district also has reported the greatest loss in membership for the last two years. Canton and Toledo Districts gave the highest salary to their average preachers, and though having the largest W. M. S. membership, gave least to missions and raised least per member for missions. These districts also have the largest Sunday school enrollment.

Zanesville District has the largest membership, and has reported a gain in membership for the last two years, and has the largest number of circuits and Sunday schools. This district gave the highest salary to its elder.

Delason Street, Youngstown, Ohio; Merle Hackney, literature agent, E. State Street, Barberton, Ohio; Berta Snyder, box superintendent, Byesville, Ohio.

THE BEGINNING

We are indebted to Sister Emily J. Williams for our first organization. When a girl, attending the Evangelical Church, the superintendent of the Sunday school and also her teacher went as missionaries to Japan. This created her first interest in missions and left a lasting impression on her young mind and heart. As she grew older the desire to help increased; she then joined the missionary society of that church.

Later she, with her parents, moved nearer a Free Methodist Church and was appointed a teacher in the Sunday school.

In the winter of 1883 she visited the school she had formerly attended and was greatly impressed by a box with this inscription printed on it, "Birthday Missionary Offerings." Immediately she thought of her school, and full of enthusiasm talked with pastor and superintendent, who encouraged her to introduce the birthday box. The next Sunday found such a box introduced in the school, with the needs of Brother and Sister Ward of India. This was the beginning of the missionary activities in the Sunday school and church in Cleveland.

When she became the wife of Rev. J. E. Williams and accompanied him on the various circuits, she still carried that missionary interest and enthusiasm, which persuaded many Sunday schools to adopt the "Birthday Box for Missions."

During the conference year of 1891-1892, her soul was stirred aflame and she said, "We must have a missionary society." Reading of a few societies being organized in other conferences, her courage was increased. A few gathered at New Albany, Ohio, on April 8, 1892, and there the first Free Methodist Missionary Society in the Ohio Conference was organized, with six active members and one honorarv. And to Brother and Sister Ward in India they sent the first missionary box, in which was a quilt pieced by Sister Williams' daughter, Gertrude, then six years old.

In September, the same year, at Thurston, Ohio, the first conference W. M. S. was organized, with a membership of forty-five.

OUR GOAL

Our societies have grown until now we have 528 members enrolled, and last year we raised $3,165.30, an average of $6.00 per member. In 1906, 31 years ago, we had 227 members and raised $1,031.85, an average of $4.55 per member. 703 members were reported in 1926 and $6,813.57 was raised, an average of $9.69. Since then the membership and the amount raised are a little difficult to determine, since it was about this time that the Y. P. M. S. became more active and was under the W. M. S.

However, we find that in 1933 the W. M. S. raised but $1,787.71, an average of $3.40. This was the lowest point in recent years. Since then there has been a steady increase in amount raised.

By an order of the conference society, the goal for the coming year was set for $5,000.00, which means that if there is no increase in membership that each member should raise $9.47—a little less than the amount raised in 1926, or that each and every member of the church, including probationers and preachers, should contribute $3.00 for missions through the W. M. S. However, the goal for this year is "Every woman in the conference a member." Not quite one-half of the membership of the conference are members of a missionary society.

The Board of Administration of the General Conference of the Free Methodist Church of North America convened at the Free Methodist Publishing House, Winona Lake, Indiana, on Wednesday, October 20, 1937, at 2 p. m., Bishop William Pearce in the chair.

All the members were present except J. Johnson and E. O. Barnes.

Four sittings of the Board were held.

The various Commissions reported and their work was approved.

Bishop L. R. Marston, F. R. Dawson, C. H. Stoll, G. A. Lees and J. R. H. Bell were elected a committee to study the social order as it relates to the material and spiritual welfare of the church, with instructions to report to the Board at its next annual session.

C. A. Watson, Committee on Labor Relations, was appointed as the accredited representative of the Free Methodist Church to attend any conventions of the American Federation of Labor or other labor organizations where the interests of the Free Methodist Church might be involved.

The Board approved of a plan to take eight per cent of the profits of the Publishing House for education and two per cent for evangelism.

The reports of the Publishing Agent regarding the business of the House and of the Editor of the Free Methodist concerning the circulation of the paper were encouraging.

The next annual session of the Board will convene on Wednesday, October 19, 1938, at 10 a. m.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Bishop R. H. Warren, President

E. Ballenger

M. E. Lewis

D. L. MacPhee

J. R. H. Bell

A. G. Ball, Secretary

C. V. Fairbairn

J. H. Whiteman,
member ex-officio

The Commission on Christian Education met in our well-appointed and pleasantly-located Publishing House at Winona Lake, Indiana, October 19, 1937. All members were present.

The following matters were prayerfully and carefully considered:

The General Sunday School Secretary made his report, and among other things he said that we must become more alert in our Sunday school administration in relation to child evangelism and holding our boys and girls through the intermediate age, by taking an interest and guiding them in their weekday activities. Also, through the Sunday School Worker a campaign will soon be started to increase the enrollment in our Sunday schools without resorting to the contest type of promotion.

The subject of Service Training was given much consideration, and your Commission is happy to present to the church well-organized courses for Teacher Training and the development of Christian workers throughout the church. Dr. Orville S. Walters, 7416 Lansdowne, St. Louis, Missouri, was elected director of the Service Training Department.

The Committee on Curriculum is as follows: B. H. Pearson, J. H. Whiteman, Orville S. Walters, Helen I. Root, B. L. Olmstead and Robert Burgess.

The presidents of our colleges were present and rendered great assistance in the deliberations of the Commission. They reported a combined enrollment of 1,298 students. The Commission appreciates the wonderful contribution our Christian colleges are making to every phase of the progress of our church around the world.

It was decided by the Commission that to encourage evangelism among the children of our Sunday schools, we allow any conference that will employ a full-time Sunday school evangelist or a full-time Sunday school secretary, to retain one-half of the one-fourth of the Sunday school tithe due the Commission on Christian Education.

It was decided by the Commission to put on a church-wide campaign under Paragraph 120, section 1, of the Discipline, to raise funds for the promotion of Christian education. A campaign committee was elected as follows: Bishop R. H. Warren, C. V. Fairbairn, and A. G. Ball.

The following appropriations were allowed: International Council of Religious Education, $50.00; World's Sunday School Association, $25.00; John Milton Foundation for the Blind, $10.00; Sunday School Department, promotional, $300.00; Department of Service Training, $300.00.

A proposed manual for week-day activities of our Sunday school boys was presented, called Boys' Christian Network, and a committee was appointed to revise the manual. Also it is to be studied by the Board of Administration, to be acted upon at the meeting next year.

We bid adieu to Winona Lake in full appreciation of our presiding bishop, our general officers, and the courteous treatment of the employees of the Publishing House.

COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM, CHARITIES AND

The Commission on Evangelism, Charities and Benevolences, and Church Extension met in the Free Methodist Publishing House at Winona Lake, Indiana, at 10 a. m., Tuesday, October 19, 1937.

In the providence of God, all of the members of the Commission were present. The Commission members are greatly encouraged in their efforts. After much hard work, the various departments under its management are moving forward.

The heads of the various charitable institutions brought good reports of their "work of faith and labor of love." Within the walls of these homes of mercy many worthy people, young and old, find shelter. There is no way to estimate the sacrifice of those who, day and night, labor for the welfare of the inmates of these homes.

There has been much building activity during the year. Requests totaled over $22,000. The following appropriations were made:

Conference	Circuit	Appropriation
Ohio	Sugar Creek	$ 85.00
Southern California	Los Angeles, Third	100.00

The Executive Secretary of Evangelism, Rev. R. B. Campbell, faithfully labored throughout the year to promote evangelism over the connection. In district and conference conventions he has inspired the church to greater activity in soul-saving. Many new fields are opening. Earnest prayer is solicited for the success of church-wide evangelism.

COMMISSION ON MISSIONS

The Missionary Secretary gave an extensive report of his trip to India and Africa, telling the progress of the work in those fields. He also gave a report on the present status of the missionary debt. It was as follows:

"According to our auditors, we began in 1932 with a debt in the Operating Fund of $114,683.00. In 1933 it was $111,150.00; in 1934 it was $106,042.00; in 1935 it was $97,512.00; in 1936 it was $78,603.00; and it is now, as of September 30, $66,318.00. We have paid a total of $48,000.00 on the debt, all of which shows that we are winning out in our campaign against the enemy."

A memorial service was held in memory of Mrs. Melba Davis, Rev. George D. Schlosser, Rev. J. H. Schaffer, Mrs. Lois Thomas and Miss Letitia Chandler.

J. W. Haley and family were granted furlough, to begin May 1, 1938. Miss Edith Frances Jones was granted a furlough, to begin in the summer of 1938. Rev. E. C. Snyder and family were returned to the Dominican Republic this fall; and Dr. Lois Kent was appointed to labor in India, leaving America about January 1. Miss Marjory Peach was accepted as a candidate missionary for Urundi. She is to do further preparatory work in Spring Arbor and in Belgium.

A week of Self-Denial was ordered, March 21-27, 1938.

The president of the Commission, Bishop M. D. Ormston, was asked to hold the Japan and China Conferences if conditions permit. If not, then he is to visit Panama and the Dominican Republic, holding the conference in the Dominican Republic at Easter time.

The Missionary Secretary was instructed to secure a pharmacist-manager type of missionary for the Grinnell Memorial Hospital in China.

The Penny-a-Day Director, A. G. Ball, gave his report, stating that about $20,000 in pennies had been received this year. He was reelected for 1938.

It was thought best to re-open the Boys' School in Portuguese East Africa, and the Missionary Secretary was instructed to find a single lady to prepare for the teaching of these boys.

The South American mission proposition was on the Agenda, and the President and the Secretary of the Commission were asked to prepare a statement expressing the attitude of the Commission on this subject: It is as follows:

"The appeal made for birthday offerings from the Sunday schools of the church to be used in the opening of work in South America has brought into the treasury $2,700.00. We give this information thankfully to those who are interested throughout the church in this new missionary project. Though the Commission would be glad to begin this work at once, yet because of the effort being made to eliminate the missionary debt, and all the other responsibilities which must be taken into consideration in the undertaking of such a South America mission project, we do not feel justified to begin yet. This information will assure the friends who are interested in opening up work in South America that the Commission is still planning to go forward when the time comes."

Signed: Bishop M. D. Ormston,
Missionary Secretary H. F. Johnson.

The total appropriations for the new year amounted to $117,445.00. This is a small increase over last year. Last year 1,100 new members were added to the church on our home and foreign mission fields. Where can you duplicate the investment?

We are deeply grateful to Him who has given us this great harvest of souls.

MISSIONARY SECRETARY'S ANNUAL REPORT, OCTOBER, 1937

We are thankful for a good year in our missionary work financially, the debt now being $66,318.00 instead of $78,603.00, as of last year. The work has gone forward spiritually on every field. Here in the homeland there seems to be an unprecedented interest in our work, for which we are very grateful. We also wish to express appreciation to the Board for having given us the privilege of visiting every mission field in the church. It is of inestimable value to us in the direction of the work, and I trust has been an inspiration to the field.

Five of our noble band have been called to a higher service this year, namely, George D. Schlosser, Jacob H. Schaffer, Mrs. Melba Davis, Mrs. Lois Thomas, and Miss Letitia Chandler. During the year the following missionaries have come home on furlough: Rolland N. Davis, Persis M. Phelps, from India; Misses Florence Murray and Geneva Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Silva, from China; A. E. Haley and wife, from Portuguese East Africa; Miss Rachel Smiley, and E. C. Snyder and family, from the Dominican Republic. Those sent out this year are: Frank E. Adamson and wife, to Belgium, enroute to Urundi; Floyd A. Puffer and wife, Frank J. Kline and wife, to India; Nahum E. Perkins and wife, and Miss Rachel Smiley, to the Dominican Republic; Victor W. Macy and wife, and Wesley DeMille and wife, to Portugal, enroute to Portuguese East Africa; and Miss Frances Hart, to Japan. This unusual movement of our forces has cost us more money than we anticipated. Added to this is the extra expense caused by the death of five missionaries and a possible evacuation of all our China missionaries. We sorrow with those who are sad and suffer with those who suffer in the war-torn Orient. These are terrible days.

STATE OF THE WORK

Never before in the history of our foreign mission work have we been able to report a gain of a thousand members. That is our gain this year on our foreign fields. In Portuguese East Africa, even though we have a reduced missionary staff, the work goes steadily forward. The Bible Training School, in charge of Laurence M. Arksey and Miss Mae P. Armstrong, has been a great factor in turning out good workers. Miss Latshaw's grade school for boys and girls is a model for everybody and a great source of blessing to the native church. The new mission station at Masinga is now getting into full swing. Rev. A. E. Haley and wife built a very neat, roomy house and other mission compound buildings before coming home on furlough. Now Ralph Jacobs and wife and Miss Daisy Frederick are pushing the evangelistic work into new places around this mission station. It is the only mission station in the entire northern end of the colony. We are entering into our inheritance, and a great harvest awaits our reapers.

South Africa has a strong, spiritual native church, which is practically self-supporting. We have a small group of missionaries there who are real veterans. They have been in service for many years. There is Miss F. Grace Allen, finishing now her Golden Jubilee of service in Africa, and not far behind her comes Miss Lucy Hartman, who has given nearly forty years of service in Africa, with only one furlough. These two missionaries have grown old in the service and have been a great help in building the African church which we see today. J. S. Rice and family are doing a great work in the Industrial Training School. They have this year 104 boys from all parts of South Africa and many different churches. Here they give a certificate which nearly always insures the holder a job, but more important than this is the true conception of spiritual life which these boys carry back to their villages. Miss Margaret LaBarre is doing effective work among the natives in the city of Durban.

Rev. A. M. Anderson and wife have a heavy responsibility in looking after the work which three missionaries used to do—the Fair View Farm, the supervision of many schools, besides the care of all the churches. They are doing very well.

Germiston Mission, a part of the Portuguese East Africa Conference, is a strategic center for gospel work. To this place come thousands of boys from all over South Africa to work in the gold mines. They not only carry away gold to their far-off homes, but also the gospel seed. We have a great working church in Germiston, and Rev. Jules Ryff and his wife are directing the forces in a very efficient manner. The native churches are entirely self-supporting, besides helping to support the preachers in Portuguese East Africa.

Urundi, our newest mission, is far separated from our other three African fields. The work is still in embryo. But it is amazing that in so short a time J. W. Haley and his staff could see so much accomplished. The gospel is welcomed here and the natives are not afraid to attend meetings. They attend by the hundreds. Some have already been baptized. We now have eight missionaries in Urundi and two enroute.

China has had a very good year, even though we have not had as many American missionaries as usual on the field. Those who are there, however, have carried very heavy loads. In this brief space it is not possible to mention the work of each missionary. Suffice it to say we have no more hard-working, consecrated and spiritual workers on any field than the Ashcrafts, the Taylors, the Greens, the Silvas, the Winslows, the Reid sisters, the Misses Bernice Wood, Florence Murray, Edith Frances Jones, Kate Leininger, Mattie J. Peterson, Mrs. Schaffer, Mrs. Schlosser, Miss Somerville, Miss Sayre and Brother Ryding. The very names conjure up many inspiring thoughts. The proof of the effectiveness of these missionaries is in the great native Chinese church which has been built. The church is carrying forward the work now while the missionaries are all absent from them during these terrible days of war. May God bless our missionaries in China and keep the vine of His own planting!

Japan is the church of the forward movement. It never rests on any laurels, but is always forging ahead. A new, commodious church has been built in Akashi and work opened at Nagoya this year. Miss Ruth Mylander is our only missionary in Japan now, as Miss Pickens is home on furlough. These missionaries have carried great responsibilities for the work in Japan, and are greatly beloved by the Japanese people. To join them we have sent Miss Frances Hart, of Oregon, this month. Rev. T. Tsuchiyama is full of energy and faith for the work. He is a great leader among his own people, and we are very thankful for him, as well as for all our other Japanese leaders. Our whole Japanese church is very loyal to our doctrines. It is almost wholly self-supporting. Let us remember our Christian Japanese in prayer during these days of strife.

The Dominican Republic is having another time of revival. Superintendent Mills and the Perkinses are holding revivals all over the field. The responses have been gratifying. Many additions to the church have been made this year in spite of opposition and many handicaps. The Bible Training School has had a very good year. More than ever this school is giving itself to the spiritual preparation of our youth for the evangelical task before them. Rev. E. C. Snyder, principal of the school, is doing a great piece of work. His helpers, Mrs. Clara Snyder, Miss Eva L. Whiffen, and Miss Rachel Smiley, are carrying the heavy end of the responsibility. The school has a practical theology which results in a strong evangelistic program being carried out in the city of Santiago and near-by towns and villages. This school has a good standing in the Republic. Miss Helen O. Abrams is pastor at Macoris and is doing a good work.

India organized its provisional conference this year with a strong, forward-looking evangelistic program as its main feature. Back of this program is to be the Bible Training School and Summer Institute for workers. It is a real effort to reach out into our vast, unreached territory. If we had sixteen evangelical teams of five in a team, and these set out to evangelize our fields, staying three weeks in each village, it would take us ten years to cover our field once. This task is now begun. We have four teams at work. One hundred converts have been baptized since conference in March. I have been in meetings in all our fields, but never felt any more of God's presence in India. Our missionaries are few in number, but here, as in other fields, they are the very cream of the church. I am thinking of the Misses Southworth, Alcorn, Menter and Phelps, the Roots, the Puffers and the Klines.

Our largest gain in membership was in Portuguese East Africa, 485; next comes China with 227; then Japan, 152; South Africa, 84; the Dominican Republic, 22; and India, 10; making a total in round numbers of a thousand new members on our foreign mission fields this year.

HOME MISSIONS

While we have extended mission interests abroad, we also have a fine, growing home mission work, reaching the Republic of Panama, Mexico, American Japanese, Italians, Greeks, and Indians. We also have an important mission in the Kentucky Mountains. Some of our very best missionaries are at the head of these missions: viz., Jose Avila in Panama, B. H. Pearson among the Mexicans in southwestern United States, Clyde J. Burnett among the Pacific Coast Japanese, Simon V. Kline among the Italians near Chicago, George Radeos among the Greeks in Chicago, Miss Elizabeth E. O'Connor among the mountaineers, Beryl Manyon among the Indian-Japanese of New Mexico, and Ida O. Helgen in Mason City, Iowa. Each of these missions has an excellent corps of workers. Better workers can not be found anywhere. They are all carrying heavy responsibilities and doing much excellent work. It gives one great heart to visit these congregations and hear their soul-stirring songs and their glowing testimonies. To be allowed to preach in these places is a great treat, for upon the slightest indication that there is to be an altar service the people come forward easily and with great conviction for sin. The total gain in membership for this year in our home work is 120. Adding this figure to the gain in our foreign work, we present a grand total of 1100 members this past year. Where could the investment be duplicated?

REPORT OF THE FIELD SECRETARY OF THE MISSIONARY BOARD,
OCTOBER, 1937

Feeling from day to day more deeply my dependence on our Lord and with a realization of His all-sufficiency, I report to you once more as the Commission on Missions.

The year has passed more rapidly than any in which I have wrought in His work. Have been permitted to hold an average of five services per week in the interests of the foreign and home work. Held eleven ten-day meetings, attended eleven annual conferences, one of which I supplied, and dedicated two churches, raising funds for same and also for parsonage. As usual had to refuse more invitations than I could possibly engage.

No one could ask for greater hospitality and welcome than has been accorded to Mrs. Baker and me, as she has been with me in services fully half the year.

As God's blessing has rested upon the services held, a very liberal spirit of giving has been manifest, and that very often with tears of joy. We find many ready to sacrifice for missions, and others rather indifferent.

Personally, our greatest joy has been to see a goodly number seek and find God, time to tarry in His presence and feed on the Word.

In our travels we have covered some over 33,270 miles. The offerings and subscriptions have been somewhat more liberal than last year. In the report of funds raised I do not give an account of many pledges made for the support of native workers, which will be paid during the ensuing year, nor the funds sent direct to the General Treasurer. The amount of money raised is as follows:

Offerings in special meetings, sale of books given to me by E. E. Shelhamer, and personal gifts.....	$ 601.14
Cash on support of native workers (sent to B. H. Gaddis and Ella M. Daniels)	3,715.69
Cash in meetings held, by correspondence and personal contact....	3,942.40
Subscriptions taken, to be paid through W. M. S. and Y. P. M. S. during the year.....	7,789.65
Annuities	2,100.00
	$18,148.90

Of the first item of $601.14, $501.14 was spent in traveling, postage, printing, etc., and the remaining $100.00 sent to the treasurer with a detailed account of expenses.

Above all requests I would make is that we have a place in your prayers that we may be more blessed in our labors and have greater power with God and men.

Respectfully submitted,
F. L. BAKER.

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Figures talk. They say encouraging things—and discouraging. When one is interested in figures he can find out many secrets if he will take time for study. By comparing notes he can tell whether a president is a hustler, careless, one-sided or an all-round person. He can tell what sort of department heads are in each conference; for figures are indicators and thermometers. Figures make the back stiffen and cause exclamations of surprise and delight or a drooping of shoulders as one leans back in his chair with a sigh and cries out, "Wake up! Wake up!"

This year the annual report was different—a comparative report of 1935-6 and 1936-7—which indicated that we have some hustlers who are working their jobs well. With the exception of four or five items the totals of all points on the combined blanks are gains.

There are some discrepancies, and always will be. Some conferences are held in the spring. The Tidings campaign comes during the summer, which raises the list sometimes two or three hundred before the October meetings. This year's report gives last summer's increase, and next October's report will give this summer's increase. By actual count, however, we have reached the goal—10,000.

Fifteen thousand was the membership goal. By counting foreign and home, active and honorary members, we have passed the goal, and we have reached 15,000 in this country alone. Active and honorary members, total, 15,042.

By actual count there are 16,252 members—workers here and there together with Him. What an army!

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL W. M. S.

The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the General Woman's Missionary Society of the Free Methodist Church met in the W. M. S. rooms in the Free Methodist Publishing House, October 14 and 15, 1937. The president, Mrs. Carrie T. Burritt, ably presided. Every member was present. There had been no immediate deaths. There had been three marriages in the families of the committee.

The following actions were approved:

1. The request of Rev. H. F. Johnson for $750.00 in addition to the $500.00 previously granted to build a larger cottage called the "Daisy Frederick Cottage," in Massinga country, Africa, was granted.

2. $500.00 was appropriated for a new mission house in Urundi, Africa.

3. A new adding machine for use in the W. M. S. rooms at headquarters was ordered purchased, at a cost of $127.00.

4. $150.00 was appropriated, if necessary, for promoting W. M. S. interests in the poorer conferences.

5. The president, Carrie T. Burritt, was nominated as W. M. S. representative to the Foreign Missions' Conference, with expenses paid.

6. The Publications Committee recommended: (a) That we publish a different sort of children's reading book, the material having been furnished by Mrs. Loretta Root, India; this in addition to World Treasure Trails, India, as previously recommended. Adopted. (b) The committee approved the preparation of a textbook on our India mission by Miss Helen I. Root, and desired that the work already begun be continued. Adopted.

7. On motion, the Publications Committee was authorized to prepare new certificates for "Life Membership" and new certificates "In Memoriam."

8. On motion, a new cover was ordered for the Tidings, the cost approximately $30.00 a month more.

9. On motion, it was recommended that the W. M. S. cooperate with the new plans for Service Training to the extent of preparing a course on W. M. S. methods and procedure. Adopted.

The reports of the department heads were so alive with "advance" that they did not even border on boredom.

Letters were read from Miss Baird, niece of Miss Adella P. Carpenter, Rev. Ernest Keasling, secretary of the Y. P. M. S. Council, Nina Coffee Smith, box superintendent, Mrs. Adelaide L. Beers, member of the Advisory Board, and Mrs. Harriett S. Barnes, former member of the committee.

The devotional periods were well-planned and well-named. They were conducted by the following persons: Mrs. Shay, subject, "God and the Impossible"; Mrs. Moyer, "Rest in a World of Turmoil"; Miss Root, "Security"; Mrs. Howland, "The Shepherd's Care."

The following visitors were introduced and brought greetings: Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Snyder, missionaries from the Dominican Republic; Mrs. Harriett M. Baker; Miss Grace Somerville, missionary from China; Mrs. Pearl Johnson, who gave a sketch of the work in foreign lands; Mrs. Jennie Olmstead; Mrs. Myrtle Gaddis; Bishop and Mrs. Ormston; Rev. H. F. Johnson, missionary secretary; and B. H. Gaddis, publishing agent.

The "Memorial Service," held Friday afternoon, was a beautiful word and floral tribute to loved ones gone, in charge of Mrs. Shay.

Just after recess at each sitting, short, wholesome messages were given on "Stewardship" by the following: Mrs. Green, of the "Body"; Mrs. McCarty, "Hospitality"; Mrs. Hogue, "Letterwriting."

About 10:30 Friday night the group said "good-by" after invoking God's blessing upon us, then turned to face the tasks ahead. May God grant that the group will be unbroken next October, when we meet again.

JENNE HARROUN HOWLAND, Gen. Cor. Sec.

Y. P. M. S. COUNCIL

Bishop Robert H. Warren, President, 3211 Fifth Avenue W., Seattle, Washington.

Rev. B. H. Pearson, Superintendent, 1510 N. Main Street, Los Angeles, California.

Rev. Harry F. Johnson, General Missionary Secretary, Winona Lake, Indiana.

Rev. Ernest Keasling, Jr., Regional Secretary, Recording Secretary, Y. P. M. S. representative, 184 Ocean View Avenue, Santa Cruz, California.

Rev. Robert Burgess, Regional Secretary, Y. P. M. S. Representative, 720 Portage Street, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Mrs. Jenne H. Howland, W. M. S. Council Member, Winona Lake, Indiana.

Miss Helen I. Root, W. M. S. Council Member, Winona Lake, Indiana.

General Treasurer of Y. P. M. S., Mrs. J. M. (Ella Maze) Daniels, Greenville, Illinois.

Statistical Secretary of Y. P. M. S., Mr. William P. Hart, 526 Wheeling Way, Los Angeles, California.

Office of the Y. P. M. S., 1510 N. Main Street, Los Angeles, California.

At the sixth annual session of the Y. P. M. S. Council, held at the Free Methodist Publishing House, Winona Lake, Indiana, October 18-20, 1937, the following important actions were taken:

1. "Sunday Evenings with Jesus," a second book in the program series, will appear soon.

2. Y. P. M. S. Roll Call. A membership card will be issued for each Y. P. M. S. member in the church. It is believed that during this year the quadrennial goal of 15,000 Y. P. M. S. members will be reached.

3. New Conference Quotient. A plan for ranking Y. P. M. S. conferences has been developed for those conferences desiring to use it.

4. An Annual Meeting in Each Local, with special emphasis on personal consecration, was recommended. An offering is to be taken and sent to the Commission on Evangelism, to be used for projects sponsored by the Y. P. M. S. Council.

5. Louisiana Evangelistic Advance. An expression of co-operation was ordered sent to the Commission on Evangelism.

6. Service Training as carried under the Commission on Education was heartily endorsed. Rev. Robert J. Burgess is the representative on the Y. P. M. S. Council on the Central Curriculum Committee.

7. World Youth Gathering in 1939! Plans for an Eastern Youth Gathering were merged with plans for this world gathering, at the time of the quadrennial meeting.

8. High School Youth Must Be Saved! A committee consisting of Dr. Phillip Ashton, Prof. C. Dorr Demaray, Dr. Orville S. Walters and Rev. B. H. Pearson for working on the problem of our high school youth was appointed.

Thanksgiving for the recent and continued outpouring of the Holy Spirit on Y. P. M. S. members at Palmer Lake and elsewhere, a deep realization that one more October will bring in final reports for the quadrennium, a sensing of the need for the reaching down in lower age levels marked the sessions of the Y. P. M. S. Council. The year has brought a definite widening of the Y. P. M. S. vision into a world organization.

Experimentation in the field of high school youth is invited. That the reaching of these younger young people is imperative is sensed not only for the Y. P. M. S. organization but for the church and Christianity. ARE WE READY TO REACH THEM?

"Spirit of the Living God, fall fresh on me,
Break me, melt me,
Mold me, fill me,
Spirit of the Living God, fall fresh on me."
